

Fadilla Rahmania (200605110028)

Me: My difficult situation where the day When my dad passed away on July 2021. The reason is because he is my dad, the part of my life. and also at the time/day my mom in Hospital to recovery from covid. So i have to calmdown my brothers.

About careers

Q₁: What do you think of the most important basic skills when we applying a job? Why?

Q₂: Do you think the environment of the work is important? Why?

About Life

Q₁: When you faced 2 situations between family and work responsibilities, which one you chose ? And why?

Conclusion of The Answer:

Chandra:

1. He think the basic skills are cooperating and not complaining much
2. The work environment is very influential because it will have an impact on our next work
3. He think he will choose with family because work can be found again, while our family has been instrumental in our lives

Dewa:

1. The most important basic skill are dependent with what job are you looking for
2. Sure, cause sometimes conditions can inspire us while working
3. It's depends which one are important. If there's responsibility that we can't leave it with every reason he'll choose a responsibility. But, if he can leave the responsibility, he'll permission to leave it

Denis:

1. He think the most important basic skill is our attitude and behavior and for the other skills, we can learn wherever we want.
2. He think it's important, because the work environment affects his psychology, which will also affect what he do. So that positive conditions in the work environment play an important role in increasing his loyalty.
3. He put his family first, because we need to realize that without any interference from his family, he is nothing. And for the job it is still possible to ask for permission even though the environment are a bit difficult for the company. And even if he get fired, he can still find a job again