EID HOLIDAY

Eid Holiday is special day for moslem in the world that have been waiting for to gather with family, silaturahmi, refreshing, and others activity. The most activites that many people in Indonesia do when Eid holiday is homecoming or we called “mudik”. Homecoming is annually activities to back to our hometown or house of our parents to meet with family. I am doing homecoming to Malang to meet my family from mom. I spent 2 days in Malang to holiday with my family. Day 1 at the night, me and my family go to the Batu to Silaturahmi with my grandparents’ neighbors because my grandparent’s house in the Batu. On the next day, me with my cousin go to Hawai Waterpark to swim and try many things that I didn’t try before like tsunami simulation, extreme & high slide, tour in lazy river, and other wahana. After from Waterpark, I go to the my aunt’s house in Lawang near to Wonosari’s tea garden to cook grilled satay. I am very full and sleepy at that day because I eat too much. On the next day, me, my mom, and my brother go back to our home in Mojokerto and rest to keep our energy to meet another friends or family. I hope in the next year we can meet again in good health. In brief, when Eid holiday I doing homecoming for 2 days to meet my family in Malang to refreshing and do a lot of fun things which I didn’t try before that make me so happy and grateful for having a good family.
